TeX Publications Information

TeXMaG is an independantly published electronic magazine available free of charge to all interested parties reachable by electronic mail. It is published sporadicly, and the editor likes to think that its monthly so the readers humor him. Subscription requests should be sent to Don Hosek <DHOSEK@HMCVAX.BITNET> or send the following message to LISTSERV@BYUADMIN: SUBS TEXMAG-L Your_Full_Name. European subscribers may send the SUBS command to LISTSERV@DEARN, subscribers on CDNnet should send subscription requests to <list-request@ubc.csnet> (being sure to mention that they wish to subscribe to TeXMaG), and JANET subscribers should send requests to be added to the list to Peter Abbott, <ABBOTTP@UK.AC.ASTON.MAIL>. Back issues are available for anonymous FTP in the file BBD:TEXMAG.TXT on SCIENCE.UTAH.EDU. BITNET users may obtain back issues from LISTSERV@TCSVM (in an interactive message or as the first line of a mail file, send the command GET TEXMAG VvNn where v is the volume number and n is the issue number), or from UBSERVE@UBVMSC (in an interactive message, send the command SEND TEXMAG.VvvvNnnn where vvv and nnn are as above). Janet users may obtain back issues from Peter Abbott (e-mail address above) and DECNET/SPAN users may obtain them from the Decnet repository (see below). They may also be obtained from Don Hosek <DHOSEK@HMCVAX.BITNET>. Article submissions, contributions for the Toolbox, and letters to the editor are always welcome and should be sent to <DHOSEK@HMCVAX.BITNET>.

Other publications of interest to TeX users are:

TeXHAX. Arpanet mailing list for persons with questions, suggestions, etc.. about TeX, LaTeX, MetaFont and related programs. Submissions for this list should be sent to <TeXHAX@Score.Stanford.EDU>. Internet subscribers may subscribe by sending a request to <TeXHAX-REQUEST@Score.Stanford.EDU>. JANET subscribers should send subscription requests to <texhax-request@uk.ac.ucl.cs.nss>. BITNET users may subscribe by sending the following command (as an interactive message or as the first line of a mail message) to LISTSERV@TAMVM1: SUBS TEX-L your_full_name. The list is peer-linked to other listserves in the United States and Europe. Australian users should send subscription requests to <munnari!elz@uunet.uu.net> Japanese users should send subscription requests to <takagi%icot.jp@relay.cs.net>. Back issues are available by anonymous FTP from Score.Stanford.Edu and from Listserv@Tamvm1 (in an interactive message or as the first line of a mail file send the command GET TEXHAXnn yy where nn is the issue number and yy are the last two digits of the year. Issues 100 and above are named TEXHAnnn yy)

Unix-TeX. Arpanet mailing list specifically for users of TeX under the Unix operating system. Submissions for this list should be sent to <Unix-TeX@JUNE.CS.WASHINGTON.EDU>. Requests to be added or deleted from the mailing list should be sent to <Unix-TeX-Request@JUNE.CS.WASHINGTON.EDU>.

UKTeX. A U.K. version of TeXhax. To subscribe, send a note to Peter Abbott at <info-tex-request@uk.ac.aston.mail>.

TeXline. A TeX newsletter edited by Malcolm Clark. To subscribe, send a note to <texline@uk.ac.ic.cc.vaxa>.

TUGBoat. A publication by the TeX Users Group. An excellent reference for TeX users. For more information about joining TUG and subscribing to TUGBoat send (real) mail to:

TeX Users Group
c/o American Mathematical Society
P. O. Box 9506
Providence, RI 02940-9506, USA

Inquiries may be directed to Karen Butler <KLb@Seed.Ams.Com>.

LaTeX-style collection. A collection of LaTeX files is available for FTP and mail access at cayuga.cs.rochester.edu. To obtain files via FTP, login to cayuga.cs.rochester.edu (192.5.53.209) as anonymous, password guest and go to the directory public/latex-style (where the files are). The file 00index contains a brief description of current directory contents. If your site does not have FTP access, you may obtain files by mail by sending a message to latex-style@cs.rochester.edu with the subject "@file request". The first line of the body of the message should be an @. The second line should contain a mail address from rochester TO you (for example, if you are user@site.bitnet, the second line should be user%site.bitnet@cunyv.cuny.edu). The lines that follow should be the filenames you desire and the last line should also contain only an @.

LISTSERV@DHDURZ1 has file archives of interest to TeX users. Included are the Beebe drivers and contents of the LaTeX style collection, as well as some TeX macros. Many files are available only in German.

LISTSERV@TAMVM1 also has file archives that may be of interest to TeX users on BITNET, including the files from the Score.Stanford.EDU FTP directories and back issues of TeXHAX. For a list of files available, send the following command to LISTSERV@TAMVM1: GET TeX FILELIST.

DECNET. There is a TeX file collection on DECnet accessible from DECnet and SPAN. Available files include the Beebe DVI drivers, the LaTeX style collection, and back issues of TeXhax, TeXMag, and UKTeX. For more information, contact Marisa Luvisetto (DECNET: <39947::luvisetto>, Bitnet: <LUVISETTO@IBOINFN.BITNET>) or Massimo Calvani <CALVANI@VAXFPD.INFNET> U.S. Users should contact Ed Bell <7388::Bell>

JANET. Peter Abbott keeps an archive of TeX-related files available for FTP access. For more information send mail to <Abbottp@Uk.Ac.Aston.Mail>.
